NESTOR FALLS FLY-IN OUTPOST

BUSH REPORT

The shows have been busy and we have talked to lots of people. We are pleased with the response and are hopeful that the economy is moving upward again.

Dave has been on the road for the last few weeks now Sport Showing. We were worried that the late night meals might cause more problems for his gallbladder but so far so good.

Jon, Kasey and Ryan are going to do the shows for us in February.

My schedule in January made it so that I was unable to travel to the shows again this winter. With all of us being so sick over the Christmas Holidays I fell a bit behind in the paper work. We also had to get Ashley moved into her new apartment this month. Now I got to tell you she was not excited about this move and as a parent it was not easy for me to push her into this move because believe me I wanted her to stay in Nestor Falls. But in my heart I know that she needs the experience that

It is about solitude and spending time with the family & friends this job is going to give her to open the doors to what she really wants to do. Jon and I drove our 20' trailer filled with furniture, food, pets and cleaning supplies to Winnipeg. While Ashley was at work we helped to unpack and organize the apartment. I think she might be settling into her new space now.

On our way back from Winnipeg Jon and I saw a Timber Wolf curled up on the Snowmobile trail along side the Hwy. He was a pretty grey one with a nice thick coat. It was only – 20F actual temperature and I don't know what the wind chill was but it was COLD!!!!!!

Speaking of Timber Wolves we have seen tracks on the road over by Kay's Place.

Well here we are the end of January only a couple more months of winter I hope. The temperatures have been pretty mild really but the last few weeks have brought some sub zero temperatures.

We have so much snow this year it is unbelievable. We have shoveled off the roofs here at the base and over at Kay's place. We have a good 7 feet on the ground and it seems like everyday it wants to snow more. I am not sure where to put it any more.

This should really help the lake levels this spring. I am hoping that we have a early spring again this year. With all the snow we have the ice conditions are not the greatest. We still have about a week or so work to do on the inside of the Larus Beach Outpost this spring. We are putting in prefinished wood so it should go up quickly.

Get out and enjoy the outdoors.

Till next month

Golf VS Sex

Sent in by Tom Ashby

A golfer is in a competitive match with a friend, who is ahead by a couple of strokes. "Boy, I'd give anything to sink this putt," the golfer mumbles to himself.

Just then, a stranger walks up beside him and whispers, "Would you be willing to give up one-fourth of your sex life?"

Thinking the man is crazy and his answer will be meaningless, the golfer also feels that maybe this is a good omen so he says, "Sure," and sinks the putt.

Two holes later, he mumbles to himself again, "Gee, I sure would like to get an eagle on this one."

The same stranger is at his side again and whispers, "Would it be worth giving up another fourth of your sex life?"

Shrugging, the golfer replies, "Okay" And he makes an eagle.

On the final hole, the golfer needs another eagle to win. Without waiting for him to say anything, the stranger quickly moves to his side and says, "Would winning this match be worth giving up the rest of your sex life?"

"Definitely," the golfer replies, and he makes the eagle.

As the golfer is walking to the club house, the stranger walks alongside him and says, "I haven't really been fair with you because you don't know who I am. I'm the devil, and from this day forward you will have no sex life."

"Nice to meet you," the golfer replies, "I'm Father O'Malley."
